My dear Mr Forman

I am much grieved to hear such bad news of your dear daughter, and sincerely hope she will recover sooner than you expect, and be shortly able to return home, for residence in an Hotel for an invalid is most uncomfortable. I trust in the best of physicians Youth.

In the "Illustrated London News" of Jan 10th. I see by chance the following. A Civil List pension of £80 per annum, with the benefit of survivorship has been granted to Miss Charlotte and Miss Caroline Raeburn, the grand daughters of Sir Henry Raeburn R. A.

The survivorship I suppose is on account of the pension being granted to the two sisters. Is it usual to grant survivorships?

Give my love to your wife, and tell her how much I sympathize with her. Ask the family give with me in affectionate regards to you, and

Believe me to remain
Always remember yours.

Thanks for the cheque
